

Weekend Wiring

Order Form

Weekend Wiring strives to provide the best service possible. We will personally consult you and find out what technology and equipment will suite your personal networking needs. As a step to better communicate with our customers, we provide the order forms we use to process your orders so you can better understand the services we provide and what to expect during our first consultation call.

Service Type:

Wireless Integration & Security ($300.00) ____

Home Networking - Internet/Printing ($300.00) ____

Wiring ($50/hour) ____

Notes:

Client Information:

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Fax: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Package Information:

Wireless Integration & Security:

This package includes a telephone service consultation and the secure installation and setup two computers and a wireless access point. These computers will all have access to the Internet and the service will be encrypted. Supplies are not included in this rate. Cable Modem or DSL must be installed and one computer must have access to the Internet.

Home Networking - Internet/Printing:

This package includes a telephone service consultation and the secure installation and setup two computers and an access point. These computers will all have access to the Internet and any printers if network compatible. Supplies are not included in this rate. Cable Modem or DSL must be installed and one computer must have access to the Internet.

Home Wiring:

This service is based on a rate of $50 an hour, two-hour minimum. We will enter a home being built and lay Ethernet cables before the house is completed to facilitate Internet access though out the house. Supplies are not included in this rate.